The Minister of Trade, Industry and Agriculture (both indisposed)

o Pm 16/66 Use of land at Spinola for film production

Ministers considered Memo 1467 and agreed to consider the matter further after the views of the Development Corporation had been obtained regarding the aid-worthiness of Interservice Mediterranean Limited.

Sec. 2662/61 Widling Agreement

Arising out of the wage dispute between the General Workers' Union and the Millers, Ministers considered the claim of the latter for a revision of the current widling agreement. It was agreed that the Minister be told that the Government would be prepared to seek the services of an expert adviser to go into the whole question
